

Full name	Masayasu Matsumoto
Nationality	Japan
Position	Professor
Institution	Department of Clinical Neuroscience and Therapeutics, Hiroshima University Graduate School of Biomedical and Health Sciences
Position	Director
Institution	Hoshigaoka Medical Center

Education (Degree)

1982 Ph.D., Osaka University School of Medicine, Osaka, Japan

1976 Bachelor of Medicine, Osaka University School of Medicine, Osaka, Japan

Professional Experience

2015—present Director, Hoshigaoka Medical Center, Osaka

2002—present Professor & Chairman, Department of Clinical Neuroscience and Therapeutics, Hiroshima University Graduate School of Biomedical and Health Sciences

1999—2002 Associate Professor, Department of Internal Medicine and Therapeutics and Department of Clinical Neuroscience, Osaka University Graduate School of Medicine

1992—1999 Associate Professor, Department of Neurology, Osaka University School of Medicine

1986—1999 Assistant Professor, First Department of Medicine, Osaka University School of Medicine

1984—1986 Research Fellow in Department of Neurology, Mayo Clinic, Rochester, Minnesota

1982—1984	Research Fellow in First Department of Medicine, Osaka University School of Medicine
1978—1982	Ph.D. Candidate in Internal Medicine, Osaka University School of Medicine
1977—1978	Clinical Fellow, Hoshigaoka Koseinenkin Hospital, Osaka
1976—1977	Clinical Fellow, Osaka University Hospital, Osaka

Research Interests

Stroke Neurology

- “Ischemic tolerance” phenomenon in the brain
- Identification of several stress proteins including IRP94, ORP150 etc.
- Detection of neurogenesis in ischemic rat brain
- Ultrasonography, MRI, SPECT and PET for detecting the pathophysiological changes in the cerebrovascular disease patients

Involved in several clinical trials such as CSPS, PROGRESS, JET, MELT, COPE Trial, J-PPP, CATHARSIS, RESPECT,

Working as a principal investigator of J-STARS

Membership: World Stroke Organization: Board Member

The Japan Stroke Society: Board Member

The Japanese Society of Neurology: Board Member

The Japanese Society of Cerebral Blood Flow and Metabolism: Board Member

Japanese-Korean Joint Stroke Conference: Executive Committee Member